Dear friends

We celebrated International Women's Day

FUNDRAISER

Vive Žene

We had a beautiful evening gathered with many dear friends, to celebrate Dan Žena—a special day honoring women, friendship, and community. The room was filled with laughter, good food, heartfelt conversations, and lots of positive energy.

This year, we also used this meaningful occasion to kick off our fundraiser in support of Vive Žene and Medica Zenica, two organizations doing amazing work for women's health and empowerment. We're proud to share that we raised a little over $3800 that evening alone!

As fundraising efforts continues online, and we welcome anyone willing to contribute to the cause. Every little bit helps, and together we can make a real difference.

Thank you to everyone who came, donated, and celebrated with us. Your kindness and support mean the world.

What's New?

Folklor Group Shines on Stage and Sets Sights on National Festival

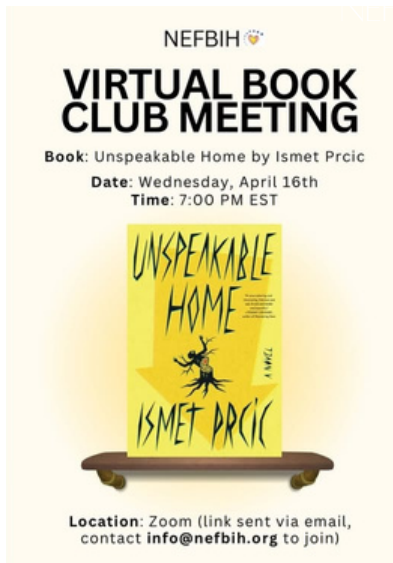

Our vibrant Folklor group, consisting of 14 talented girls under the dedicated guidance of Teacher Selma, has had a memorable start to 2025! This winter and spring, the group gave two heartwarming performances: first at the Women's Day Celebration in Danvers, MA in February, and most recently at the Bosniak Society Eid Celebration in Revere, MA this April.

Both events were full of energy, joy, and strong community support.

We're thrilled to share that our group has been invited to perform at the national KUD Festival in Utica, NY in June 2025. This is a wonderful honor, and we are excited to represent Boston alongside other folklor groups from across the United States. Preparations are already underway, and we're looking forward to showcasing our culture, spirit, and teamwork on a national stage.

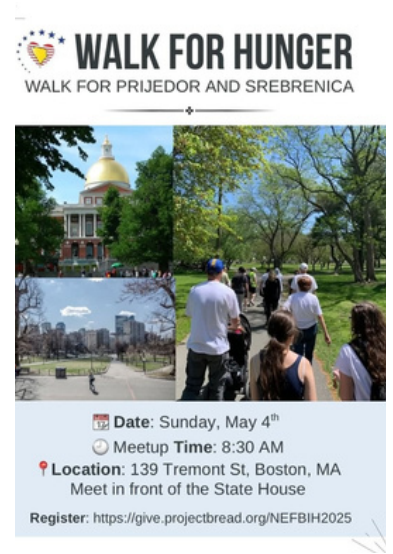

The Folklor group will take a summer break and reconvene in early September for the 2025/2026 school year. We're also excited to welcome new students at that time—so if you or someone you know is interested in joining, we'd love to have you!
